

NIAC Annual Meeting

Held via conference call August 15, 2019 at 1:30pm Pacific Time/ 4:30pm Eastern Time

Tammy Wilson, NIAC's Vice Chair, announced that this is the annual members' meeting of the Nonprofits Insurance Alliance of California (NIAC) and convened the meeting.

Pamela Davis announced the following:

- The notice of the Annual Meeting was sent to all members of NIAC and NANI the week of July 29, 2019, giving our members the opportunity to participate in the Annual Meeting through a conference call.
- All those expressing interest in being part of the conference call were supplied with the toll-free conference call in number.
- This meeting is informational only and there are no items requiring a vote to be placed before the members.
- Pamela Davis, President and CEO, provided the financial and operational review of NIAC for 2018.

Highlights of the Financial and Operational Overviews for 2018 follows:

NIAC is a charitable risk pool for California nonprofits. It is a public benefit nonprofit organization tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3). It was incorporated in 1988 in California. There have been no changes to that structure during 2018.

NIAC is affiliated with AMS, ANI and NANI

- AMS is a nonprofit supporting organization that houses all staff and provides all management and insurance services for NIAC and its affiliates.
- ANI is a risk retention group and charitable risk pool domiciled in Vermont and serving nonprofits doing at least some business outside of California.
- NANI is a captive insurance company that has supported NIAC and ANI in their reinsurance programs in various ways in prior years. In 2018, NANI assumed a 50% quota share for NIAC's auto physical damage business and a 10% quota share of NIAC's property business. NANI also reinsured North American Elite (a fronting company owned by Swiss Re) for 100% of auto physical damage and 10% of property risks written for ANI member-insureds.

Tammy Wilson asked whether there were questions or other items to be addressed on behalf of NIAC.

After questions were answered, the Vice Chair adjourned the annual meeting on behalf of NIAC.
