

Apply for a Grant for Your Nonprofit Risk Management Needs

Do you have an immediate risk management need but no budget to take care of it? You could be eligible for a reimbursement of associated costs of up to $500 through NIA's Roger Gilbert Fund!

The Gilbert Family established a small fund in honor of Roger Gilbert, who served for 14 years as Nonprofits Insurance Alliance (NIA) board member and audit chair. To honor Roger Gilbert and our passion for helping nonprofits, the employees of NIA have continued to contribute to this fund.

Grants from this fund are exclusively for existing NIA members for small risk management projects. Each member can apply for up to $500 in reimbursement for expenses such as those in the column at right.

Examples of Qualifying Expenses:

- AED machine
- Back-up mirror for a van
- Battery backups
- Building or facility security
- Car seats
- Carbon monoxide detectors

Application Process

Let us know the name of your organization, what you plan to buy, the actual cost of the item, and a sentence or two about how it will help your nonprofit. If you also send us a picture of the great work you are doing, even better!

We'll review your request promptly and honor as many requests as we can each year. But remember, it's first- come, first-served. All gift requests are reviewed in the order in which they are received.
